The SailTime™ concept is a revolutionary and extremely affordable and practical approach to regular sailing that allows you, as a SailTime Member, the enjoyment of accessing one of our fleet of luxury yachts without all the hassles, headaches, long term commitment and expenses that can be associated with traditional ownership or syndicated yacht share. SailTime caters for all levels of sailors whether you are an experienced sailor, an occasional sailor or a complete novice you will soon be confidently skippering one of our luxury yachts.

Exclusive Sailing without the commitment of buying a boat

With a low entry point and minimum one year commitment, SailTime makes financial sense in the current economic times. No longer do you need to buy your own boat, with SailTime you enjoy exclusive access to a quality boat that is fully maintained, serviced, berthed and insured. We take care of the worry and costs while you, your friends and family enjoy carefree sailing.

SailTime PLUS

Additionally, as a SailTime member you have access, via SailTime Global Access to any of our 35 bases and fleet of 100+ boats in Australia, Europe and North America.

Enjoy sailing Port Stephens

SailTime Port Stephens fleet has a brand new 38 ft luxury Jeanneau yacht, based in Soldiers Point Marina. Soldiers Point Marina provides the perfect spot for exploring the magnificent waterways and hinterland of Port Stephens, covering nearly 1000 square kilometres of scenic diversity, warm weather, friendly dolphins and fresh seafood. Port Stephens has over 50kms of beaches to explore.

Soldiers Point Marina is a 5 star marina with luxury hotel style bathrooms, beauty and massage facilities, café, restaurant. The marina also provides complimentary coffee and papers delivered to your yacht in the mornings, and cocktails in the evening. You can enjoy a sail or relax onboard your yacht at the resort style marina.

Port Stephens is home to the Great Lakes Marine Park, with many species of dolphins, turtles, fish and seabirds. Certified members can explore the secluded islands off Port Stephens which are within a protected marine wildlife sanctuary. Dolphins and whales are regular visitors to this sanctuary.

SailTime
The affordable way to sail

Enjoy lunch or an overnight stay onboard your yacht in Fame Cove which is a sheltered bay which provides for safe swimming and friendly wildlife, all in a natural beautiful setting.

Port Stephens boasts breath taking natural scenery, with Nelson Bay being a beautiful place to rest and explore. In season the whales pass by, and there are many places nearby where you can get off for a walk. Nelson Bay is also famous for it's own pod of dolphins, and a hub of activity with shops, clubs, restaurants and water activities.

Do all this and more on board your own luxury yacht with friends and family, a fantastic way to enjoy the majestic views and the natural beauty of Port Stephens.

SailTime Membership - Getting started

All new members will benefit from a two-day induction program (included in the joining fee) to ensure you are familiar with your yacht and the local waters before heading off on your own. We also have a comprehensive program of training available with highly experienced RYA/YA instructors through SailTime Training – you can decide how far you want to go from Novice to Yacht Master level.

Owner Member Program also available

If you're looking for a smart and affordable way to own your own new yacht in your local waterway with all the benefits of ownership but with all the expenses taken care of and monthly payments to help offset your marine mortgage, then ask about our Owner Members program.

SailTime™ is the new way to sail, offering guaranteed monthly access to a luxury Beneteau yacht through a boating schedule that you design. Whether you want to sail for a half day, a full day or a weekend a SailTime Membership is the way to go sailing. So why not join over 1000 existing members in Australia, North America and Europe who have stopped worrying about the cost of marina fees, maintenance costs or insurance fees. With SailTime Port Stephens you can enjoy sailing on a luxury yacht in our professionally managed fleet for less than you would probably pay for a berth.
